President's Message

MOTHER NATURE NEVER TAKES A VACATION

In fact, Mother Nature never sleeps. I spend every waking moment trying to disrupt York Ski Club members lives. Remember last seasons infamous "Polar Vortex" which caused cancellations on over 27,700 flights during an eight day period? Mother Nature's mischief never stops challenging travelers.

What's in store for this season? Maybe.....

Earthquakes/Floods - 2013 marked a record year for the number of volcanoes erupting worldwide.

Volcanic Activity - 2013 marked a record year for the number of volcanoes erupting worldwide.

Remember 2010, when I unleashed enough ash to erase more than 100,000 flights to/from Europe?

I'm not trying to scare you from going on a YSC trip, but Mt. Bachelor is a dormant volcano, just like Roundtop, only bigger. If I were you, I'd buy trip insurance this season.

Sincerely,
Mother Nature

Dear Santa,

It's been a great summer, but I've been thinking about what I want for Christmas. My parents are members of the York Ski Club and I found the July-August newsletter laying on the kitchen table. I seem to have almost everything I need and I'm at a loss what to ask you for this year.

Then it hit me; those York Ski Club trips look great. A first time trip to Mt. Bachelor, OR sounds awesome. The expanded bus trip to Jay Peak, Smuggler's Notch and Stowe sounds like a perfect combination. But I'm a little confused, as to which state these are in. One article say Northern Vermont and another says

Northern Virginia. So my first request for Christmas is a GPS, tablet or maybe even a laptop to confirm a the location.

I also read about the Belleayre Mountain, NY trip. I really like visiting historic places, but my parents always told me when you see the word "rustic" in a description, watch out. I'm not sure if I'm ready for a "well-rounded travel experience".

Since my list is pretty short, how about giving me one of those YSC trips. My parents can probably take off work and I'm sure I can makeup school work.

Sincerely,
Nancy Virginia Smith

Dear N. Virginia,

I'm as confused as you are about which state, Jay Peak, Smuggler's Notch and Stowe are in. If you want to confirm the destination or find out more about YSC trips, you can attend the next York Ski Club meeting on September 16, 2014 at the Stone Grill and Tap House, 204 St. Charles Way, York. I'm sure you'll be surprised what I put in your sock this Christmas.

If you're looking for presents to give to others, I hear they have great gifts at Uller's Ski & Board Shop, Amish Gourds, and Furniture Finesse. All the information is in the YSC newsletter you found.

MERRY CHRISTMAS
Happy Ski Season
SANTA

P.S. I will check with Rudolph; he knows where all the deep snow is on the East Coast. Can your Mom or Dad get a six pack at BeerTaGo; I'm tired of cookies?

BELLEAYRE

The Club is heading back to Belleayre Mtn. Our beloved Belleayre has historically been one of our more popular trips for its apr s ski offerings and casual atmosphere. We will once again be lodging at the historic Colonial Inn & Restaurant, just about two miles from the ski area on Friday and Saturday night.

The Colonial Inn & Restaurant, is a rustic family style inn that was built in 1870. It has just 12 rooms with private baths, a very large TV lounge area, game room, cocktail lounge and eclectic display of furnishings. All amenities combine to form a well- rounded cultural experience. Special arrangements can be made for those who want to arrive early (i.e. Thursday)

Travel Day: Friday, January 23, 2015- Members will carpool to Pine Hill, NY at their leisure. There are nearby resorts that skiers/boarders may want to visit in route.

GO FIGURE ... Mystery solved! The triple Black Diamond at Smuggler's Notch is called the Black Hole. Did you know the whole mountain area within the ski area boundary is open for skiing and boarding. That's almost 1,000 acres at Smuggs. Both Jay Peak and Stowe have similar policies. Our triple play + formula is now  $1,000+485+485=1970$  acres or  $3 \times 3+$  for triple the fun or just  $3^3$ .

Package Includes: 2 nights lodging (Fri and Sat); 2-day lift ticket (Sat and Sun); 2-breakfasts; Saturday evening buffet, meal gratuity and room taxes. Evening beverages are extra.

Trip Cost

$265.00 pp/double occupancy
