President's Message

MID LIFE CRISIS 101

Dear Patients (or Patience):

As we get older, we all probably have had some midlife crisis. It occurred to me that every year about this time, YSC suffers a pre-season planning crisis. Steve Witty, the owner of the Colonial Inn, has been missing for two weeks (or he's just not returning phone calls). Scott Burford, our trip leader, is in a panic mode. Scott, our past president, may actually have to write a letter to confirm our rustic lodging. Speaking of accommodations, why do we stay at the Colonial Inn? Shawn McEachern believes it's a form of home sickness and can't wait to check in early without any guarantees of heat and/or hot water...Are we crazy?

Then there's our Mt. Bachelor, OR. trip. Delta Airlines cancelled our flight and Dan Ellis's (with Winter Ski & Sport) blood pressure rose as he scrambled to reschedule our flights. There was a Harrisburg departure option with a return flight to BWI.

Come On' Man! I believe we now have a return flight to HIA, but at the cost of losing some beauty sleep on the day of departure. Then there is the Roanoke Ski Club, our partner on this trip. Delta inflicted more pain and our flights are further apart fouling up our shuttle schedule from Portland to Bend, OR. Do we need to charter a bus?

Finally, we only have 14 persons or the Northern Vermont Bus Trip, and I'm under a lot of stress not to switch to a carpool trip. We have contacted F & S Transportation about renting a 15 passenger van and trailer for equipment. After exploring our options with and without a F & S driver, the final discussion will be announced in the next newsletter. In the interim, final trip payments are being suspended until the December 16, 2014 meeting.

CROSS COUNTRY SKIING Weekend Getaway

Pray for snow! If Mother Nature cooperates, Mike and Deb March would like to host a weekend at their cabin in Pine Grove in 2015. The final announcement will be made by email blast.

Their cabin is between Laurel Lake and Fuller Lake. There may be ice skating, sledding and snowshoe options depending on snow cover. Naturally, more details to follow!

Can't commit to an overnight stay - Day Trippers (was that a Beatles song?) are also welcome.

GO FIGURE ... The Eastern Pennsylvania Ski Council (EPSC) is already planning trips through 2019. One of EPSC trips is to Lake Placid/Whiteface in 2017, which might make a great future bus trip, hopefully sharing the cost with another club. YSC has received a request from several members to do Austria in 2016. The YSC Board will be discussing longer term options later this month. If you have a request, please let any Board Member know at the 11/18/14 club. EPSC discount lift forms will not be available on line until December this year.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY December 16, 2014

YSC will provide pizza at the December 16, 2014 meeting at the Stone Grille and Tap House, 204 St. Charles Way, York, beginning at 6:00pm. The club meeting will start at 7:00pm. Members are encouraged to bring cookies to share.

We will sell raffle tickets for lift tickets, ski clothing, beer, wine, etc. donated by our sponsors and club members. Everyone is invited to bring a gift. There is even regifting of regifts from previous years.
